Reception to Home Comers.

The home of Mrs. Fred Osburn on East Oliver street, was the scene of a pretty tea Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Osburn, Mrs. Hugh McCurdy, Mrs. Calvin P. Bentley and Mrs. Annie Osburn Baxter entertained in honor of Mrs. Alvin Bentley and Mrs. A. T. Thomas of this city, and Mrs. Sweeting of New York, who have been spending several months in California.

The veranda of the Osburn home was unusually beautiful with its red carpets, American flags and comfortable chairs. Tall white wicker vases filled with lilacs and bowls of narcissus and tulips added a summery touch, while in the house corners of the rooms were banked with purple and white lilacs, wild fox, wake robin and wild ferns. Tall rose-shaded lamps cast a rosy light upon the guests.

In the dining room, where the tea table was arranged, Mrs. R. R. Hart and Mrs. W. F. Gallagher presided for the first hour of the reception. They were assisted by the members of the Alpha Bridge club. During the second hour Mrs. J. Edwin Ellis and Mrs. George M. Dewey had charge of the table and were assisted by Mrs. Leigh Christian, Mrs. J. C. Osburn, Mrs. Lois Crawford and Mrs. Charles Sackrider. His anesthetics are of his own invention.

No one else is using them, neither can they use them.

Not any unnecessary sore gums.

No bad after-effects.

No dental chairs.

Every instrument is thoroughly sterilized.

It always was so and always will be.

Teeth broken off are especially solicited.

In about one-half of his work, Dr. Smith does not use a forcep at all.

Remember the day, place and date.

YOU are at the forks of the road. The guidepost names one "ECONOMY" and the other "EXTRAVAGANCE." Which road are you going to take? Economy leads to Success. Extravagance leads to Failure.

Are you going to take the road to Success and Prosperity? The first milestone is a bank account—it acts as a check against extravagance. The safe, sane way for a man to live is to work hard and always save a part of what he earns, and bank that part. Nothing can stop that sort of a man on his road to Success.
